

POSITIONS VACANT

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A SCHOOL CHAPLAIN?

SU Tas is seeking to appoint chaplains to bring hope and make a difference for young people in Tasmanian schools.

We currently have chaplains employed all over the state, working under the school chaplaincy guidelines established by the Tasmanian Department of Education.

Potential applicants should:

- ✓ accept, respect and relate to all members of diverse school communities
- ✓ have appropriate qualifications (min. Cert IV in Youth Work, Pastoral Care or higher)
- ✓ be experienced & confident in working with young people
- ✓ be connected to a faith-based community.

POSITION CURRENTLY AVAILABLE:

Burnie High School (part-time)

If you are interested in the listed position or wish to find out about other opportunities, please contact:

James Todd 0439 950 965 or james.todd@sutas.org.au

sutas.org.au/chaplaincy