

Healthy Families : Hopeful Futures

Healthy families are the backbone of our society, but what does a healthy family look like and what can we do as parents and communities to ensure our kids have the best future?

You are invited to a free community forum featuring renowned Psychologist and author Steve Biddulph. Steve will be presenting on what makes a good dad and how fathering affects boys and girls.

The following Q&A panel will then take your questions :

Bryn Parry
Family GP

Cecily Rosol
School Chaplain and foster carer

Elysia Cunningham
Clinical Psychologist

Steve Biddulph
Author and retired Psychologist

Who: Anyone interested in parenting and healthy families!
When: 2:30 – 4:30pm Saturday 22nd August. Afternoon tea provided
Where: Ulverstone Civic Centre, 19 King Edward Street, Ulverstone
Cost: Free! This event is provided by SU Tasmania
RSVP: For catering purposes: enquiries@sutas.org.au or 62448422